

There is no greater value for your advertising budget than the Michigan College of Emergency Physicians' News & Views. With circulation of over 2,000, News & Views serves as the sole information source of issues critical to emergency physicians and emergency department directors throughout the state - important issues involving legislation, reimbursement, medical progress, educational and employment matters. Regular publicity in MCEP's News & Views will maintain the familiarity of your trusted services with Michigan's dedicated emergency physicians.
